The Additional Agent to the Government, Rampachodavaram, East Godavari District and others.

.....RESPONDENTS

THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE L.NARASIMHA REDDY

Writ Petition No.25685 of 2005

ORDER:

The third respondent initiated proceedings against the petitioner before the second respondent in relation to land in Survey Nos.26/1A and 26/1B situated in Vaikuntapuram village, Rajavommangi Mandal, East Godavari District. The second respondent took the same as L.T.R.P.No.241 of 2004. Through an order, dated 23.12.2004, the second respondent directed eviction of the petitioner holding that the assignment in his favour is contrary to the A.P. Scheduled Areas Land Transfer Regulation, 1959 (for short 'the Regulation') as well as the judgment rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The petitioner filed C.M.A.No.105 of 2005 before the first respondent. The appeal was rejected on 22.10.2005. Aggrieved thereby, the petitioner preferred revision before the fourth respondent together with an application for stay. His grievance is that no orders have been passed on the application for stay and alleges that the third respondent is taking steps to evict him.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Social Welfare.

Aggrieved by the concurrent findings recorded by the respondents 1 and 2 in the proceedings initiated against him under the Regulation, the petitioner availed the remedy of revision before the fourth respondent. The question as to whether the petitioner is still in possession of the land and if so, whether he deserves to be granted any interim order, needs to be considered by the fourth respondent. The revision is filed on 24.11.2005. The application needs to be disposed of at the earliest.

Hence, the writ petition is disposed of directing the fourth respondent to pass appropriate orders in the application for stay submitted by the petitioner within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs.
